Exercise Your Advantage With Us at our *New Lansdale Office

Parry Physical Therapy Group is a privately owned physical therapy practice with offices in Quakertown, Lansdale, and Allentown. Our purpose is to serve the community by restoring quality and function to people who suffer from orthopedic, musculoskeletal, or neurologic impairments.

Our goal is simply to be the best at what we do. We accomplish this through a commitment to personalized treatment plans with the same therapist each visit, hands-on therapy, and patient education.

We treat each person with dignity in an uplifting, positive, and friendly atmosphere. Our licensed staff is highly trained, competent, and caring, and it shows. Our services are distinguished from other physical therapy practices by our unique understanding of the anatomic and physiologic impairments which cause functional limitations and disabilities. Also, our comprehensive evaluations and treatment plans which emphasize manual therapies find problems that others miss.

Our years of experience in spine rehab, extensive education and training, and God-driven desire to serve people allows us to provide the most personalized, competent, and effective care available in the area.
